

Course Description – Curriculum 2013

Subject: FN461 Advanced International Financial Management

Credits: 3

Prerequisite: FN313

Description: International financial markets, evolution of financial markets, financing sources from international debt and stock markets; financial management for multinational corporations, direct investment analysis, international portfolio investments, political risk analysis, international capital budgeting and liquidity management