Course Description – Curriculum 2018

Subject: AC314 Accounting Information Systems

Credits: 3

Prerequisite: AC201 and IS201

Description: Concepts of accounting information systems, business models, business processes and transactions; computerization in processing, and reporting; typical business documents and reports and proper system documentation; the fundamental of systems security and controls.